

Security Analyst

Exp- 2-4 years

Education:

BCA / B.Tech. / M.Tech.

Location- Gurugram

Desired Skills-

- Certified in Information System Professional (CISSP).
- Certified in Information Security Management System (ISMS) & ISO 27001.
- Experienced in Information Security Management System audits / Policy renewals.
- Experienced in Vulnerability Assessment and Penetration Testing.
- Strong written and verbal communication skills.

Key Responsibilities-

- Conduct operational activities around Business Impact Analysis, Risk Analysis, Internal audit and other activities for various business functions.
- Implementation of various security, risk, business continuity and IT service standards.
- Developing policies, procedures, standards and guidelines; and facilitating the creation of business continuity plans and procedures of various functions and business processes.
- Conducting and coordinating Risk Assessment, BCP test as well as customers DR / maintenance activities; prepare reports.
- Monitoring and assessing processes & security effectiveness and preparing report on risk and vulnerability in functions, processes and IT/ non-IT assets.
- Reviewing, documenting and testing Information Security controls for suitability.
- Evaluating design and effectiveness of applied controls for processes, systems, networks and applications in accordance with laws, regulations & internal policies and procedures & standards
- Develop training and awareness materials related to information security, risk & BCM and deliver to end users & teams to fulfill their assigned responsibilities.
- Performing control evaluation / testing on engagements; analyzing processes along multiple dimensions to identify 'Root-Causes' of issues based on review of systems, processes and interactions with business stakeholders.
- Delivering all assessment, gap and test & control reports according to agreed audience, contents, timelines and quality.
- Assessing emerging threats and recommending appropriate actions to ensure data security and privacy.
- Performing complex reviews and testing using network vulnerability assessment and penetration testing tools.
- Assisting with the implementation, administration and support of enterprise security solutions & tools.
- Conducting technical security audit & assessment.
- Analyzing and preparing status and delivery performance reports of assigned activities.
- Participating in internal, external and customer meeting and audits.